Controversies: Sika

- In April 2023, Singapore's Ministry of Manpower fined Sika and 10 companies a total of $27,000 for unsafe work procedures relating to improper storage and management of flammable substances. Sika was fined for a fire on March 13 in which two employees were injured.

- In April 2023, there was a machine fire at Sika Chemical in Lyndhurst, North Jersey. It was quickly contained, with no hazardous chemical release, injuries, or structural damage. The site stores nearly 40 different hazardous materials at this residential location.

- In March 2023, there was a large fire in industrial buildings in Tuas South, Singapore. The property is listed by Sika Singapore. There were two injuries and 40 employees were evacuated. It took 2 hours to bring the fire under control.

- Between 2018 and 2023, Sika paid more than 20.000 USD in environmental liabilities for 2 cases, according to the violation tracker project of Good Jobs First.